

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Dr. Hugh B. Campbell of Norwich will be here next Tuesday for his monthly visit in the interests of persons who are afflicted with tuberculosis or who fear that they are susceptible to the disease. Dr. Campbell is to be at the Public Health station in the town hall building from 10 to 12. His visits here are under the auspices of the civic federation and no charge is made to patients.

Henry Dubuc, grand knight of K. of L. of the Danielson, will address the members of All Hallows' council at their meeting in Moosep Sunday afternoon. A number of members of the local council will attend the meeting.

Manager Robert Pelletier at the Connecticut Mills basketball team has an unusually fine attraction planned for this (Saturday) evening when the Company M team of Milford, Mass., will be here to meet his team. Manager Pelletier has been assured that the Company M team will include some Boston players who are top-notchers. An extra attraction will be a preliminary game between the Baltic Rivals and Connecticut Mills Secods.

Miss Dorothy Doty, social welfare worker at the Connecticut Mills, has obtained a leave of absence and will go abroad at an early date with a party of New York people who will visit in London, Switzerland, France, Belgium and Italy, devoting some time to visiting famous battlefields of the World war.

Members of Danielson chapter, Order of Eastern Star, are to attend service at St. Alban's church Sunday morning. The service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Albert Jewson.

Federal Game Warden Harry E. Battery, of East Killingly, says that the fishing through the ice season ends with January 15 and that the close season begins the following day, notwithstanding that under the law one may take pickerel all through this month and February. The close season applied to lakes and ponds. Mr. Battery says that one may fish for pickerel in rivers during this month and next. Those found fishing in lakes and ponds on and after January 20 will be liable to arrest and prosecution.

The directors of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church for January are Mrs. Charles Hill, Mrs. Charles Austin, Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Carl Jennings.

J. B. Bassett and A. W. Bassett were in Providence Friday to represent the Larkin Reed company at a meeting of the mill read manufacturers of southern New England.

Rev. Edward W. Potter, field secretary of the Connecticut Temperance union is to speak at service in the Congregational church next Sunday evening.

This will be Tag Day in Danielson in the interest of Europe's starving children numbered by the hundreds of thousands. This Tag Day is a feature of the town-wide campaign that is being undertaken under the direction of a committee of which A. F. Ralston is the head and Clifford H. Starkweather treasurer. Today's effort will include a house to house canvass by workers under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beckett.

Fraternities, churches, the churches, Boy Scouts, Girls' clubs and other groups will aid in a laudable work that is being carried out throughout the nation. "Give generously today," is the plea of the directors.

Mrs. P. R. Shibley will have the members of the W. C. T. U. at her home for a meeting next Tuesday afternoon.

Christmas tree exercises that had to be postponed on account of illness in the neighborhood are to be held next Tuesday evening at the Congregational church in South Killingly.

The various winter tournaments that usually mark the season at the Bohemian club are being arranged. Pool, billiards and curl contests will be entered by a large portion of the membership. This week's special offerings at the Fabric Shop include Velveteens, 27 inch, at 70 cents; chiton velvet, 27 inch, $1.50; beautiful silk, 35 inch, $1.50; silk poplins and percales—adv.

Edward S. Lewis, 64, 1 1/2 many years a resident of East Killingly, died recently in Cranston, R. I., after a number of months failing health. Mr. Lewis was a native of South Kingston, R. I.

Announcement was made of the marriage by Rev. M. S. Stocking at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday evening of last week of Mrs. Edith L. Fish and Sidney S. Stone of Riverview.

Hundreds of railroad ties are being hauled out of woodland territory within a few miles of Danielson where heavy cutting has been going on throughout the fall and winter.

Chief John McFarland has some interesting experiences from time to time with veteran rounders. Unlocking a cell door at the police station one day this week he looked the occupant over and asked if the man, locked up during the night, had ever been arrested before. The reply was a negative one and it was not until the officer called the man by name and told him that the name was in the local police records that a reluctant admission that the officer had him right was made. In another cell an old-timer, a well known visitor in the local court, smilingly admitted his identity saying, "It's no use, Chief, for you know me."

Members of the Workaholic club have a meeting scheduled for this (Saturday) afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. Greene will have the members of the Ladies' Reading circle at her home for a meeting Monday afternoon. There will be a review of current events in response to roll call.

Bricklayers and stone masons who work in the territory of the Danielson local are anticipating a reduction in wages from $1.00 to $1.2 cents an hour. The pay of carpenters in the territory also was cut 12 1/2 cents an hour this week, their rate now being down 75 cents per hour.

James Riley, of Brooklyn, was arrested Friday afternoon charged with assault with intent to kill, after he had discharged a shotgun from a window of his home, nearly hitting Lester Williams, Deputy Sheriff Edwin S. Bennett who was a witness of the incident, later arrested Riley and locked him up in Brooklyn jail.

PUTNAM

Confirmation was made Friday of the report that Dorothy Gish, the film star, and her husband, James Rennie, spent a part of the present week at the inn at Pomfret. They were there for a part of their honeymoon, having been married in New York a few days ago. The bride was at local garage having some work done on her automobile when one of the mechanics identified her and asked her to verify her identity, which she did, then stepped into her car and went driving away. Later inquiry at Pomfret verified the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Rennie had been spending a few days there.

Reports of the mayor and other city officials will be made at next Tuesday evening's meeting of the common council. These reports, not yet available for pub-
